CLIPPINGS TAKEN FROM THE TRIBUNE IN ITS INFANCY

HAPPENINGS TEN YEARS AGO

The Pioneers of Caldwell as Shown by the Tribune From Year to Year

23 Years Ago.
The Avalanche boys were generally remembered in the political deal. Charley Hays was renominated for prosecuting attorney, Guy Newcomb for sheriff, and Dave Adams for the legislature. May all of them get there.

C. H. Reed and Miss Ella Cartee were married on Wednesday at the residence of the bride's parents in Boise City, and have gone to Mr. Reed's former home, The Dalles. They will come to Caldwell about October 25th.

Miss Carrie A. Gwinn is about to build on her lots on the north side. The band give another serenade last night.

A circus from Oregon strayed into

Boise yesterday. It was billed for Middleton Thursday, but on learning that all the people there had come to Caldwell two days before it straggled on to the capital. The people of Boise have our sympathy.

19 Years Ago.
Jim Wardwell of Emmett deposited $3 with The Tribune for safe keeping yesterday. It will be safe unless we have to burn it in lieu of coal.

A sleigh load of rosy girls were taking a leap year sleigh ride the other day and were rash enough to drive by the Tribune. Notice that Miss Ida Frost held the ribbons. We were just going to modestly volunteer our services as driver, when they drove away. The only way of revenge we have is publishing their names as a warning to other defenseless young men. They were Misses Ada and Ida Frost, Misses Ora, Orilla and Charley Lucas, Miss Maxey and Miss Phelps.

The first bell in Caldwell now swings in the school house belfry. The children will hear from it Monday morning.

Born—Thursday morning to Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Boone, a daughter weighing 7 1/2 pounds. Mother and child doing well.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Russell

Smith, a son, weight 8 1/2 pounds. All well.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Van Wynyard, a 10-pound boy, Friday morning. All well.

Dr. E. E. Maxey reports an unusual rush of business in his line, a few indications of which appear in to-day's Tribune. But while there is a great quantity of sickness, the quality thus far has been very mild.

Ten Years Ago.
Governor McConnell on Monday appointed J. T. Morrison county attorney of Canyon county. Mr. Morrison's being such that he could not attend to it, he resigned, and the position was tendered Mr. Frank J. Smith.

Ross Madden, late county treasurer, has been appointed deputy sheriff by Sheriff Taylor.

The Leader says that Lake Ethel is full the year 'round. Ethel will lose her moral standing if she prolongs that spree immoderately.

Senator Coughanour was in the city Monday on his way to Boise to legislate for a month or two. An order having been sent out from the postoffice department that postmasters can not serve as legislators, it is just possible there will be a federal appointment to be given out in Canyon county.
Miss Anabel Little's "at home" last

Saturday evening, was one of the most enjoyable events her friends have experienced in a long time. Some 30 young people partook of Miss Little's hospitality and congratulate themselves in the opportunity.

Swain Beatty's election as secretary of the State senate is a direct compliment to the tonsorial fraternity. Congratulations.

Mayor Gwinn has been in Boise several days this week holding the legislature down.

The Song Will Be.

During the coming presidential campaign it is probable that we may hear the Republican hosts singing: "If you ask me where he hails from, This my reply shall be: He comes from old O-h-i-o, And his name is Billy T."

And over on the next street a procession of the untimely Democracy may counter with the chorus: "If you ask me where he hails from, This our reply shall be: He's a lion from Ne-bras-ka, And his name's Bill Bryan, see?"

And far down the blazing street circling around a bonfire a squad of Prohibitionists may startle the echoes with: "The flutter of his pinions You've every four years heard: We've chosen for our leader The same old Swallow bird."
